Members of the Wauconda Police Department in conjunction with the Lake County Gang Task Force (LCGTF) executed a search warrant at 122 E. Mill Street, Wauconda at 9:30 P.M. on January 24, 2018, due to numerous neighborhood complaints of drug dealing.

During the search warrant, investigators seized heroin, cannabis, crack cocaine, Oxymorphone, Alprazolam, LSD, and Psilocybin mushrooms totaling over 120 grams. In addition, investigators also seized approximately $2,000 in U.S.C. and prepaid debit cards and a 2013 Honda CR-Z.

Sheriff Mark Curran said, “This investigation and arrest will save countless people from overdosing. Through pooled resources and collaboration, Wauconda Police and the Gang Task Force worked together to take another dangerous heroin dealer off the streets, keeping Lake County that much safer.”
